Redwing Pond House Preschool

The Redwing Pond House Preschool children have had a wonderful time enjoying the snow this winter, but are happy to see the exciting first signs of Spring! We are choosing seeds for our children's garden, identifying animal tracks on our daily hikes, and enjoying more time in the fresh air than the frigid temperatures of this winter allowed! In February we were fortunate to have Taylor Healey join our teaching staff. Taylor brings a great deal of enthusiasm, fun and adventure to our program and we welcome her!

If you are looking for a wonderful way for your 3-5 year old to spend some time this summer—have them join us for summer camp at the RWPH! We also have limited spaces remaining for our 2015-2016 school year. Please call us at 203-734-7974 if you are interested in hearing more about any of our incredible programs.

As always, you can take a peek at our activities on our Facebook page: 'redwingpondhousepreschool'.

Happy Spring from the RWPH!!

The Ansonia Nature & Recreation Center's Playground Revitalization Project

Over the long winter months the staff and FANCI's grant writing committee have met several times to go over a scope of work for the Ansonia Homegrown Playground so that we can proceed with grant applications for 2015. Our committee has also been collaborating with the City of Ansonia's Economic Development Director and Mayor David Casseti to ensure the playground's longevity for future generations.

The Nature Center staff has also contacted and met with four playground vendors and has received some conceptual designs. These designs will include ADA accommodations, keeping with our natural design, and will accommodate children of all ages. Many of you may remember helping to build the playground or spending many hours with your children and/or grandchildren playing here. We are asking for our community to come together again to help rebuild our Homegrown Playground.

If you would like to be part of our fundraising committee, please send us your name, address, telephone number, email address, and how you can help us achieve our goal.
